

*The information provided is not exhaustive.
Please, visit the website of the program for additional information.*

Program: Master of Laws in Law and Information Technology

University: Stockholm University

Website: <http://www.su.se/english/>

Country/City: Sweden / Stockholm

Duration: 1 year

Fee: Free

Application information:

For Spring semester: Applications made by the August 1 deadline: Acceptance or rejection notification in mid-October.

Applications made by the October 15 deadline: Acceptance or rejection notification in mid-December.

For Autumn semester: Applications made by the 15th January deadline: Acceptance or rejection notification mid-April.

Applications made by the 15th April deadline: Acceptance or rejection notification in mid-July.

Admission Requirements:

Applicants to the Master's degree programme must hold a university diploma in laws or an equivalent foreign law degree of at least 120 (180 ECTS) credit points (a three-year-degree). Applicants whose first language is not English are normally required to take a Cambridge test (IELTS test) or a TOEFL test (Test of English as a Foreign Language).

A score of approximately 6.0 on the IELTS test or 250 on the Computer-based version of the TOEFL test, 600 on the paper based version or 90 on the Internet Based TOEFL test or the equivalent, is required for admission.

Additional information:

The courses included in the Programme consist of seminars, classes, practical assignments, and study visits to law firms, companies and authorities specialised in the use of IT in law. Some activities take place in the computer laboratories of the Law Faculty. The participants enjoy the additional privilege of gaining the European Computer Driving Licence - the world's leading IT skills certification programme.